24-HOUR FAST FOR JUSTICE SHUT DOWN GUANTANAMO

Join us in a fast and vigil outside the

SUPREME COURT

from 9 AM - 4 PM on WEDNESDAY,

DECEMBER 5. If you can't come to DC,

consider joining the fast in solidarity.

The Supreme Court will hear the two consolidated cases testing the legal rights of Guantanamo Bay detainees on Wednesday, Dec. 5, at 10 am — the only case scheduled for that day.

Boumediene v. Bush (06-1195) and Al Odah v. U.S. (06-1196) — whether Guantanamo Bay detainees have a constitutional or common law right to challenge their detention through habeas claims in U.S. federal courts (consolidated, one-hour hearing).

And mark you calendars for JANUARY 11, 2008

THE INTERNATIONAL DAY TO SHUT DOWN GUANTANAMO

Witness Against Torture takes to the streets of DC, marking six years of illegal detention, torture and abuse.

Take part in a procession from the White House to the Supreme Court.
