in Washington, DC

at the National City Christian Church, 14th and Massachusetts Ave., NW and the Lutheran Church of the Reformation, 222 E. Capitol Street

REGISTRATION FEE: $100.00

SCHEDULE

SUNDAY EVENING

Opening Program

“Christians Call for a Shared Jerusalem”

MONDAY

- Plenary panels, luncheon with speaker, workshops, preparation for advocacy
- Wine and cheese reception with invited Washington guests and colleagues
- Evening denominational gatherings

TUESDAY

Lobby Day on Capitol Hill

Join Middle East peace advocates from across the country and a range of Christian churches to: learn about the current issues related to Israeli-Palestinian peacemaking and the sharing of Jerusalem; and lobby Congress with up-to-date, specific talking points designed to make your voice heard.

At the CMEP conference, church leaders, issue analysts, policy experts and government officials will provide important insights and updates and prepare conference participants to meet with elected officials.

Churches for Middle East Peace, a coalition of 22 U.S. churches and church-related organizations, is positioned to guide church members and clergy in effective advocacy grounded in the principles of our faith. CMEP will help arrange your meetings with your Representative and Senators.
