

This model was developed by the MSJC Sweatshop Team and the National Labor Committee and is based on our experiences in the struggle to defend the human rights of workers.

For further information, please contact:

Al Prendergast at alprendergast@prodigy.net

Mary Jo Kaska at mjkaska@nolancatholics.org

Amanda Teckman at teckman@justice.com

Classroom materials are also available for teachers interested in the child labor/sweatshop issue--videos, pictures worker testimonies, media reports, research reports covering El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Mexico, Burma, China, and Bangladesh.

To order materials, please contact:

The National Labor Committee

275 Seventh Avenue, Suite 1503

New York, NY 10001

(212)242-3002

www.nlcnet.org

*photos taken by the NLC during a 2001 visit to sweatshop factories in Bangladesh

It's 2 a.m....

Do you know who is making our school's uniforms?

It's 2 a.m. A 16-year-old girl is just finishing up an 18 1/2 hour work day possibly sewing school uniforms all day, forced to be at work 102 hours a week,

paid 12 cents an hour,

screamed at,

punched,

slapped...

It does not have to be like this!